

Jean Campbell, LCSW, TEP is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker, a Board-Certified Trainer and Practitioner of Psychodrama and Sociometry, a Trainer and Practitioner of Psychodramatic Bodywork® and a nationally known expert in psychodrama, trauma resolution, addiction/codependency recovery and somatic psychotherapy. Her extensive clinical, teaching and training experience has included the roles of Family Program Director at Inter-Care in New York City, Clinical Director at Clearview Treatment Programs in Los Angeles, Program Faculty at MD Anderson Cancer Center's I*CARE Program, Instructor at UCLA Extension's Addiction Studies Program, Founder and CEO of Action Institute of California, and Co-Creator of Action Intervention Training™. Jean provides training and personal growth workshops for professionals, facilitates personal growth workshops for families, couples and individuals, and is committed to using action to effect change on a body, mind and spiritual level.