

Ernesto Segismundo Jr. M.S. LMFT MFC #49640

Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist

Ernesto received his undergraduate degree in psychology from Biola University and received his Masters of Science degree in Clinical Psychology from Vanguard University.

Along with Ernesto's counseling experience, he has conducted various classes and seminars concerning relationships and mental health related topics such as parenting, substance abuse, maintaining healthy marriages, private practice social media and video marketing and managed care practices. Ernesto is currently an adjunct professor at Hope International University and The Chicago School of Professional Psychology Irvine, CA campus. Ernesto owns and operates a group practice with offices located in Huntington Beach and Fullerton California. Ernesto also supervises pre-licensed therapists in his group practice called CAV Family Therapy Inc.

Ernesto created FYLMIT.com to help mental health professionals develop a web-based presence through video and social media marketing. Ernesto has dedicated much of his professional career helping mental health therapist learn how to market their practice through social media and video marketing.

Ernesto is also a videographer and creates promotional videos specifically for therapist in private practice. To learn more about Ernesto please visit his website: www.FYLMIT.com or follow him on Facebook and Instagram.

